

CLASSROOM

NEWSLETTER

September 15, 2023 - The Week In Mrs. Magioncalda's Class

4th Grade

From Mrs. Magioncalda,

Happy Friday, parents! This has been a quite busy but exciting first full week. We have played many icebreaker games and continue to learn more about each other.

The students have started setting goals for themselves for the first quarter in reading, math, and writing!

Upcoming Learning:

Reading

- We will continue working on our conflict in literature unit, as well as Independent reading. We will also continue reading for learning with a preview, a read-through, and purposeful re-read of text.

Social Studies

- We will continue studying and learning about maps and New York's geography, climate, etc.

Math

- We will continue learning place value concepts.

Spelling

- We will start our first spelling unit with a word list coming home on Monday & test next Friday the 22nd!

What we learned this week

- We're learning routines as well as how to say each other's names. We're sharing our favorite foods, books, seasons, etc.
- In Social Studies we're working on the geography and landforms of New York
- In ELA we are studying plot focusing on conflict.
- In writing, we brainstormed fall writing topics and began freewriting.
- We're learning about place value relationships and comparisons of whole numbers, rounding whole numbers, and fluently adding and subtracting multi-digit whole numbers.

Important Dates

- Tie-Dying ~ Friday, September 22nd.
- September 25, October 6th and 9th ~ No School
- October 12th ~ School Pictures

September Birthdays!

- September 14th ~ Benton Price
- September 26th ~ Adrian Simon

Reminders:

Please visit my class website and clicking the links to volunteer for Tie-dying, fall party treats, and get your conference time!

- School Spirit wear order sheet is In their folder
- Consider ordering books from the class book order :-)

