

Week 3: Monday, 3/30 – Writing prompt included!

Daily Language Practice:

MONDAY WEEK 3 _____ LANGUAGE PRACTICE

Name _____

1. A news story begins like this:
Imagine the strength it would take to pull a large airplane! On October 15, 1997, one man did just that. He set a record by pulling a 200-ton Boeing 747 plane almost three hundred feet.

What is the point of view of this story?

2. Is the apostrophe used correctly?
Zhuo Li's weightlifting record was set in 2003.

3. Which word means the act of competing?
☐ competition ☐ competitor ☐ competed

4. Circle the correct word.
Athletes at the Newtown Bodybuilding Competition (lift, lifts) about 110 kg each.

Weight lifting is an uplifting experience.

Olympic-style weightlifters are some of the strongest men and women in the world. They may not have the biggest muscles, but they do have the strongest, most powerful muscles. Bodybuilders, on the other hand, work for bulk because the emphasis in their sport is the appearance of the muscles. Thus, bodybuilders do not have to be as strong as weightlifters.

5. Does the author have enough information to draw the conclusion written in the last sentence?

Vocabulary Word of the Day: You can respond to this word any way you would like. I will be posting our typical vocabulary packets on my website just in case you would like to print and use them. If you cannot print, you can always recreate the page on a piece of paper or even in a Word document. I highlighted the definition in black so that you do not see it until you try to figure it out for yourself. Just change the highlight to see it.

Word: gregarious

Sentence: Gregarious people like group projects.

Writing Prompt: You have a friend who constantly apologizes for things that couldn't possibly be their fault. Then you find out it is. All of it.
